ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

(Please check if you agree.)

Yes, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Chapel Hill Town Council. (Other Council committees and OWASA are excluded.)

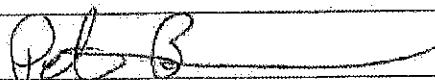

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the board or commission.

If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area.

Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Please provide a brief statement outlining why you wish to serve on the Advisory Board(s), Commission(s), Committee(s) or Task Force(s) to which you are applying.

I'm interested in serving on the Chapel Hill Public Arts Commission because of the opportunity it offers to be involved with the already outstanding arts community we have and to do what I can to help make it even stronger. I've been involved with the arts most of my life, both visual and performing, and graduated from UNC in 2001 with a degree in studio art (sculpture). I later went to law school and am currently a practicing attorney. That combination of backgrounds gives me a perspective and skill set that I hope would be useful to the Commission - I'm strongly interested in the arts and have a good deal of experience in advocating for people and causes. I'd loved a chance to put those to use in support of public art here in Chapel Hill.

I have worked in several markets ^{sales PE} served as Economic Development Director for the South Central branch of the NAACP. I have been a flight attendant and traveled the world. I have experienced other cultures as well as being vested in my own. I have been a Realtor since 2004 and I worked very hard to help disadvantaged MOMS own their own homes. I believe my experiences will help me be sympathetic to the needs of others plus be solution minded. I am active with the Art & Cool- and I support various artist. I believe music is universal.

I wish to serve on either or both boards because I think I bring a unique perspective and experience to the table. I chose the Housing Advisory Board because I am a domestic abuse survivor and I have experienced hardships which included eviction and struggling to provide for myself and children. Living in Chapel Hill has posed housing challenges. I am also a Realtor and I encountered so many women of color who wanted the American dream from themselves and their children as well. I even went head to head against a mortgage company that was charging exorbitant fees to minorities. That is a story for another time. I understand how the market treats certain people along socio-economic levels. Women as a whole have been treated differently and when you add race it opens other considerations that weren't necessarily there. I believe I have valuable contributions to make. It is my desire to help and make a difference for all people. I worked as Economic Director for the NAACP for a term because I wanted to help and serve and I thought it would be a great avenue to do so.

One of the reasons I wish to serve on the Chapel Hill Public Arts Commission is because I love art. I studied classical piano as a child. I have taken various art classes from Opera lessons, to painting and drawing. I volunteer with the Art of Cool Project which showcases the local talent in the area. Typically it would meet in an art gallery once a week and showcase a new artist. We are very fortunate to live in an area where there are many talented people wanting to be heard. I attend many public and private functions. Last weekend I was in Pittsboro – the former mayor – holds a jam and it is a great time for people to come together around music. Music is universal. It unites us. I have pursued helping the African Children's Choir. They have performed in the White House. These children are orphaned because of the tragedies that happened in Rwanda. They have found music in the midst of such horror and they share it with the world. I have traveled the world as a flight attendant and when I couldn't speak the language we came together over music. I believe I have valuable insight and can contribute productively.

Millicent Bowie

Subject: Housing Advisory Board - I would like to introduce myself.

I wrote the original letter April 15, 2014. I think I would bring a unique perspective and experience to the table. I chose the Housing Advisory Board because I am a domestic abuse survivor and I have experienced hardships which included eviction and struggling to provide for myself and children. Living in Chapel Hill has posed housing challenges as well. It is a price I pay to have my child attend East Chapel Hill High School free of bullying and being beat up, free to focus on who he is and I gladly pay it. I am currently working with Community Home Trust. I have homework and I have a plan to get it done. I am also a Realtor and I have encountered so many women of color who wanted the American dream for themselves and their children as well. I even went head to head against a mortgage company that was charging exorbitant fees to minorities. It meant standing against my own broker in charge but I did because it was the right thing to do. I understand that markets treat certain people differently along socio-economic levels. Women as a whole have been treated differently and when you add race it opens other considerations that weren't necessarily there. I believe I have valuable contributions to make. It is my desire to empower, help and make a difference for all people but particularly women of color. Not because I am prejudiced but because the need is great AND because my desire comes from my own experiences and struggles. I want to give it a voice and hopefully solutions. I have worked as an Economic Director for the NAACP for a term because I wanted to help and serve and I thought it would be a great avenue to do so. Currently I am a media specialist for a PR company. I have always been in sales. My latest accomplishment was getting a client on Good Morning America which my firm had never achieved that level. I believe I would be valuable and I am hoping I get the opportunity to serve.

Thank you for your time

I am interested in serving on either the Publics Arts Commission or the Community Design Commission because I feel that the arts culture and the aesthetic environment of Chapel Hill are its best features. I own a bar in downtown Chapel Hill and do my best to use my business to promote local artists. I sell local art in the bar and allow artists to give workshops there. I have spent the last few years generating ideas, networking, discovering pro and cons with the art scene here (according to local artists), and admiring the hard work of the town, its boards, and its talented arts community. I would like to have more opportunities to promote the arts in this area, and serving on one of these boards will afford me that chance.

I have been involved with the arts for much of my life working in the Chapel Hill Schools teaching art and architecture and now as a docent at the North Carolina Museum of Art. It is important to me that students understand that the arts are a reflection of a time period in history. The arts are more than aesthetic, they are sign posts of what is and what has changed. They are another way of "reading" and comprehending our past and present state.

The Chapel Hill Arts Commission promotes the creation and appreciation of art through its many programs, reaching a wide range of people in the town, creating dialogue among groups. I appreciate their work and would like to continue to work with them.

After graduating from UNC in May of 2012, I realized I wasn't ready to leave Chapel Hill. Now, my husband and I are making Chapel Hill our permanent home, as we move into our new condo in Greenbridge on April 30th. I've seen Chapel Hill through many different eyes: those of an undergraduate student who was scared to death of Franklin Street after being attacked by a homeless woman; those of a journalist who spent hours at The Daily Tar Heel designing graphics and pages about town government; those of a business owner securing the necessary permits to open my online shop; those of a graphic artist intrigued by the "turtle lot" and the 140 west statue; and those of a commuter, sad to leave Chapel Hill in the morning and eager to get through the traffic in the evening. Now, I am seeing Chapel Hill through the eyes of a homeowner and I believe it's time I start giving back. There's no place I'd rather live than Chapel Hill and I want to help ensure that is the case for future UNC students, town residents, and business owners alike.

If appointed by Council, I would need to sign an ethics statement and possibly take an oath prior to serving on a Town of Chapel Hill advisory body.

I was compelled to pursue involvement with the Chapel Hill Public Arts Commission because of my dedication to improving the residential experience of the members of this community. In collaborating with a team to enrich the community through many artistic features I will be uplifting the community into a place for inspiration. This commission will also prime my collaborative and communication skills for the workplace I plan to enter upon my graduation from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. I will be gaining skills in working with individuals from diverse backgrounds and community development that I can apply to my later endeavors. I am also inspired to seek involvement with the Chapel Hill Historic District Commission because of enthusiasm for history. Through my participation on this commission I can learn more about the culture and history of the community and work to facilitate interactions between residents and that rich history through the preservation of historic districts.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

(Please check if you agree.)

Yes, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Chapel Hill Town Council. (Other Council committees and OWASA are excluded.)

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the board or commission.

If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area.

Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Please provide a brief statement outlining why you wish to serve on the Advisory Board(s), Commission(s), Committee(s) or Task Force(s) to which you are applying.

I have chosen the Arts Commission, Library & Personnel Committees because of my interest, experience & background. The public art commission appeals to my interest in art - having been on a decent program while living in Orange County, California. I have a deep appreciation for art, the creative process & a sense of appreciation for exposing all citizens to art. I have served on boards previously while also living in the DC area for 17 years including President, Literacy Council of Northern Virginia, a board member of the DC Art Deco Society, a board member of the Arlington School of Dance & have worked in the area of non-profit as a Marketing Director for American Arbitration Association. It was my work at AAA that provided me w/ training in alternative dispute resolution. I have attached my CV for review.

Personal Statement

Please provide a brief statement outlining why you wish to serve on the Advisory Board(s), Commission(s), Committee(s) or Task Force(s) to which you are applying.

As a Steering Committee member of the Central West Focus Area, I learned firsthand how important citizen engagement is in Chapel Hill to ensure that our town embraces the future and moves forward in development, alternative transportation, street design, public transit routes and schedules, and bicycle and pedestrian safety. My current position on the Transportation Board has only strengthened my resolve to assist the town in accomplishing these goals.

I have experience in the use of our public transit system since I relied on its use on a daily basis while attending graduate school at Kenan-Flagler a few years ago and continue to use it frequently even now. Also, I am an avid bicyclist, and also walk extensively around Chapel Hill and Carrboro. I am familiar with current conditions, including newly designed bike and pedestrian friendly areas, and other areas that are less so.

I'm a thirty year resident of Chapel Hill and would very much like to continue my service to our town as a Chapel Hill Resident At-Large member of the Transportation and Connectivity Advisory Board. If appointed to this board, I will make sure to gain a thorough understanding of the project or issue at hand, discuss in depth, and work with fellow board members to reach a decision that is best for Chapel Hill. Thank you for this opportunity to serve and for your consideration.

I understand

If appointed by Council, I would need to sign an ethics statement and possibly take an oath prior to serving on a Town of Chapel Hill advisory body.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

(Please check if you agree.)

Yes, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Chapel Hill Town Council. (Other Council committees and OWASA are excluded.)

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the board or commission.

If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area.

Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Please provide a brief statement outlining why you wish to serve on the Advisory Board(s), Commission(s), Committee(s) or Task Force(s) to which you are applying.

As an educator with experience teaching in both K-12 and collegiate classrooms, as well as in university administration, I am dedicated to public service and want to do even more to contribute to my community. My particular interest in educational equity and social justice took me to rural Alabama as a history teacher under the auspices of Teach For America in 2010-2012, and I served in a variety of capacities supporting under-served student populations during my tenure at UCLA from 2000-2010, particularly in the Academic Advancement Program. As a result, I believe I have gained some knowledge and skills that may be helpful to the Justice in Action Committee, and I am keenly interested in the work of that body. As an educator, former literacy volunteer, and member of the Chapel Hill Friends of the Library, I also believe I might be of service to the Library Board of Trustees (and I have put in a separate application for that board through Orange County). I also have had a lifelong fascination with the arts, chiefly expressed in literary interests that led me to a graduate degree in medieval literature and visual culture, and would be excited by the opportunity to carry that interest into work with the Public Arts Commission. I understand that there are several Chapel Hill organizations in need of volunteers specifically from Carrboro, Orange County, and the university system: I am willing and ready to serve wherever I am most needed and would be pleased to hear about other possibilities.

I have been a practicing musician on and off for almost thirty years. I have seen first hand through life experience the joy, satisfaction, and sense of accomplishment that comes from expressing yourself through ART. I firmly believe access to the various forms is a necessity and not a privilege. It should be available to people from all walks of life. In New Mexico I ran an Enrichment Program that focused on Art, Music, Reading, and Film. This gave me an even greater understanding of just how liberating these various forms of expression can be. If chosen to be on this particular Board/Commission I will do my best to help ensure that this continues to be a priority of the citizens who reside here, and the individuals who come to visit. Thank you in advance for your consideration.
