

350.org Day of Action

Thursday October 14, 2010

4:30-6:30pm: Work Party at Dilmun Hill Student Farm
- 705 Dryden Road-

Share your favorite dish, take a tour of the farm or get your hands dirty, just get there!! Join in the discussion of the current global climate crisis and each of our parts in the path to the future.

7-8:30pm: Climate Refugees Screening
at Cornell Cinema
- Willard Straight Hall-

A documentary film about the “human face of climate change.” Ithaca premiere with filmmaker Michael Nash. Followed by a panel discussion with Nash, Sean Sweeney (ILR-Global Labor Institute) and Charles Greene (Earth & Atmospheric Sciences).

$7 General - $5.50 Seniors - $4 Students

These events are being brought to you by:

CUSLAR- Dilmun Hill- Engineers for a Sustainable World- KyotoNow!- Roots and Shoots- Society for Natural Resources Conservation (SNRC)- Student Assembly Environmental Committee- Sustainability Hub -Take Back the Tap