

Queen of the Sun

A documentary film to be shown at
The Barn at Valhalla | Admission $10
All proceeds benefit Spikenard Farm

Friday June 1st 7pm—9pm

Gunther Hauk, profiled in the film, will be available for conversation afterwards.

www.thebarnatvalhalla.com

Principles of Biodynamic/Sustainable Beekeeping

A workshop with master beekeeper

Gunther Hauk

author of Toward Saving the Honeybee

Sat. June 2nd 10am—4pm

Infinity Farm 1600 McDade Store Rd Cedar Grove, NC

$65 includes organic lunch

INFO: jrkwapien@earthlink.net 919-732-1840

Gunther Hauk was a Waldorf teacher for 23 years, co-founder of The Pfeiffer Center, NY in 1996, and co-founder of Spikenard Farm in 2006. www.spikenardfarm.org He and his wife Vivian live in Floyd, Virginia, where they are establishing a honeybee sanctuary in which people can experience the healing of the land, the honeybees, and ultimately the human being. Please visit the website to learn more about Spikenard's efforts to promote more sustainable and biodynamic beekeeping practices.